FOREWORD

We, the annual staff of the Impersonator, in order to leave the footprints of the students on the paths of Valdese High and to add another year of work and play to the layers of knowledge that have gone before, do publish this Eleventh volume, in hopes that it will imprint our most pleasant memories in the minds of those we leave behind.

Let us not forget to leave

There are 60 members in the senior class. We are all looking to the future. May it be happy, bright and free of wars and misery. Some of us will go on to college while for others this will be the last year of study. But what ever lies ahead in the future for each of us, may we never really stop learning, and may our memories of Valdese High always bring happy smiles on our faces and a warm feeling of friendliness about our hearts.
